BOOK PARADE
Come join us in celebrating Book Week on Wednesday 26th August 2015. The parade will begin at 11.30am and will showcase all the wonderful costumes.

Llandilo students will celebrate this wonderful week of books by dressing up as their favourite book characters; we encourage all students to be creative and imaginative when choosing their costumes for the day.

Book Week is a time for all schools across Australia to celebrate Australian authors, illustrators and most importantly, BOOKS! It’s a time to highlight the importance of reading and storytelling.

We hope you can make it.

Last term Penrith City Council held a competition that all the schools within the Penrith area could get involved in. The task was to draw a picture, write a story, make a digital image or write a poem of what Penrith would look like in 200 years, I wrote a poem. My poem got selected along with thirteen other children out of over 200 entries. On the first meeting it was a meet and greet where we met our fellow councillors. Then I went a second time to the council I got to meet my councillor buddy his name was Kevin Crameri, my topic that I had to debate about was Amalgamating of Penrith City Council with another council. Then I made a debate speech about amalgamation. I then went a final time to the Council where we had our mock council meeting, and my debate topic won. My family attended so did Mrs Getley, Miss Crammond, Mr Andrews, and Mr Bourke.

I had a great time experiencing this opportunity.

Madison 5/6C
From the Principal......

What a lot of busy-ness we had last week. Two nights at the Cranebrook Performing Arts Festival exhausted both teachers and dancers, but the buzz on stage and in the audience was well worth the time spent. I look forward to a repeat performance this week and next at the Joan Sutherland Centre.

Our school captain, Madison Sant, was selected to be a participant in the Junior Mayor Program run by Penrith Council. Madison was mentored by Councillor Crameri throughout the process. Last Monday evening, we attended a mock council meeting and proudly listened to her very ably debate a proposal about merging councils together. Well done Madie!

I'd like to take this opportunity to welcome Mrs Nicola Giroud to our school staff as our Acting Assistant Principal, replacing Mr Bourke. Mrs Giroud comes with a wealth of experience from Samuel Terry Public School and will continue in this role whilst we go through the process of filling the position substantively ready for the beginning of next year.

Elliot's cousin is now in the school Library and is eagerly awaiting his new title. I have had many imaginative suggestions as well as ones that suggest a favourite team, player, gaming character or performer. I will close off entries by the end of this week and the new name will be announced at the upcoming parent assembly. We're looking for something special, so be creative and give a good reason.

The school received NAPLAN results this week and letters have been sent home to parents. Remember, NAPLAN is a small snapshot on one particular day of your child's abilities and there's much more to learning than a score. If you are concerned about your child's results, please see your teacher to get the full picture. To enable the teacher to give you the time and attention you deserve, please call the school office to make an appointment.

"Test scores and measurement of achievement tell you where a student is, but not where they'll end up" – Carol S Dweck (Professor of Psychology - Stanford University)

A big Well Done to all our students in our dance groups that performed last week at the Cranebrook Performing Arts Festival. It takes a lot of practice and dedication from the Students, Teachers and Parents and for this we are very grateful.

This week the dance groups are giving an evening performance at The Joan Sutherland Centre on Thursday 20th August and another Matinee performance on Tuesday 25th August.
